Ezekiel had “visions of God.” Were these just dreams? Was there anything unusual about these visions?

Ezekiel 1:1-3 (RSV)

- [1] In the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I was among the exiles by the river Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.
- [2] On the fifth day of the month (it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoi'achin),
- [3] the word of the LORD came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chalde'ans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the LORD was upon him there.

Is Jesus a High Priest?

Hebrews 4:14 (RSV)

- [14] Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.

Why were the Hebrew Christians referred to as infants?

Hebrews 5:12-13 (RSV)

- [12] For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need some one to teach you again the first principles of God's word. You need milk, not solid food;
- [13] for every one who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is a child.
