Discussion Questions:
Old Testament

- Lamentations 2:5 says the LORD had become “like an enemy." Is this the same as God actually being the enemy of Israel? In any event, how did God's chosen people get in this position?

- Lamentations 3:25 says, "The LORD is good to them that wait for him, to the soul that seeks him." Can this verse still apply when we're in a hurry? That is, when we don't have time to wait? How do we "seek" God?
- Lamentations 5:1-18 describes some of the indignities suffered by Judah. Is "no respect shown to the elders" (v. 12) in the same class as the other items? Why is this item contained in this list?

New Testament

- Hebrews 2:7 says that Jesus was "a little lower than angels." Some commentators say the meaning here is that Christ—born as a man—was at that time inferior to angels. Do you agree with this interpretation?
- "Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant… but Christ is faithful as a Son over his house" Hebrews 3:5-6. What is the difference between the Moses and Jesus?
- Is having a "heart of unbelief" really evil? Read Hebrews 3:12.
