A Time for War?

It seems we always think of God promoting peace on earth and good will toward others. Yet there are clearly times when God sent his people into battle with instructions to kill the enemy.