Christian Men’s Breakfast – Women invited too (Saturday, May 22, 2010 only)

Bill Clinton was President the last time we invited the wives to the Christian Men's Breakfast

The Christian Men’s Breakfast group meets again this Saturday, May 22, 2010. Same time. Same place. But this week only, bring your wife and your daughter(s). The last time we suspended the “men only” rule was when Bill Clinton was President. We also have a special guest speaker this Saturday, who happens to be a woman.

Please call me or send me a note via the “CONTACT” tab at the top of each page, for more details.
